TWO BALD-HEADED EAGLES IN BATTLE ABOVE DETROIT
(By International News Service.)
DETROIT, Mich.—Although they had the whole United States sky and part of Canada to fight in, two bald-headed eagles battled above the smoke-filled atmosphere above Detroit recently. One is now incarcerated in a home-made eagle cage by Tony Bovicki, the other eagle flew away and probably is telling Miss Eagle what a wonder he is in a fight.

Mr. Bovicki is suffering from numerous scratches inflicted upon his person when the caught the eagle, and his clothing is torn.

Bovicki was returning along Martin street in the afternoon when he happened to look up and saw two specks in the sky. Gradually the two objects came closer to earth and Bovicki recognized them as eagles in battle. Lower and lower they circled. One of the birds attempting to swoop upward, struck the peak of a roof and tumbled to the ground, where it was captured by Bovicki after a fierce struggle.

The eagle measured six feet three inches from tip to tip with its wings outstretched. The bald eagle is rarely found outside the far west and the Rocky mountain district.

REPORT POOL OF OCEAN RATES

American and Foreign Ship Owners in Conference to Avoid Competition

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Shipping board officials today refused to discuss reports that representatives of American and foreign steamship companies had agreed at a conference at the shipping board to effect a pooling of ocean rates from all American ports under the board's supervision, thus eliminating competition.

Chairman Benson said no report of the conference had yet reached him, but that he knew "that something of the sort was going on."

W. F. Taylor, assistant director of operations, was in charge of the conference. Yesterday he issued instructions that the meeting was "purely a family affair," and that no publicity was desired.

At the first conference on Thursday it was reported that representatives of the north and south Atlantic regions and the gulf and Pacific coasts reached a decision fixing a differential rate on cotton, the primary rate on which would be fixed by interests on the gulf coast.

British, French, Italian and Japanese steamship companies were represented at the conference.

FRENCH CLASH WITH POLISH

Numerous Casualties Result in Fight in Silesia Territory

LONDON, April 24.—Numerous casualties in a fight at Trzynietz, Silesia, between workmen and French soldiers, citizen guards and Polish gendarmes are reported in a Berlin dispatch to the Central News. Major Froumond of the French detachment was killed.

The trouble is declared to have started when the French commander at Trzynietz, receiving information of a hidden store of arms, sent detachments of French soldiers and citizen guards to make a search. The workmen overpowered the detachment.

Strong protest over the incident, the Central News dispatch says, was voiced by the allied plebiscite commission which sent representatives to restore order.

Serious fighting ensued, but the workers finally were dispersed after suffering numerous casualties.

The Sculptor Girl loved Dudley Hamilt, and because that love was not reciprocated, she tried to end it all. Felicia Day loved him also, and instead of denouncing the girl, brought her home and installed her there, along with other misguided geniuses, and then became a seamstress "by the day" to provide money for them all. Felicia was afraid to face Dudley Hamilt because she thought she had lost her beauty. But an unscrupulous theatrical manager was quick to recognize that beauty, and when he tried to get personal—why, Dudley Hamilt was there to spoil his game. Remember how "Erstwhile Susan" took you by storm? Then don't miss "The Stolen Kiss."

CHICAGO MEAT FOR GERMANY

Armour's Sell $45,000,000 Worth for Immediate Delivery

CHICAGO, April 24.—Chicago packers have completed sale of $45,000,000 of provisions to the German government, it was announced today by J. Ogden Armour, of Armour & Co.

Delivery of the meat, mostly pork products, will start at once. The supplies have been stored in warehouses at Hamburg, Rotterdam, Amsterdam and in Scandinavia for several months.

The transaction does not represent new business, Armour & Co. pointed out, as the meat was shipped shortly after the armistice in the expectation of a big demand in the central empires. The adverse exchange situation held up delivery. Under present arrangements payment is to be made by Germany under a special amortization plan.

Armour & Co. issued a statement today announcing that retail meat prices, temporarily at least, will continue high as a result of the "outlaw" switchmen's strike.

While inbound livestock shipments are approaching normal, railroads are unable to furnish sufficient refrigerators or cars to handle the dressed meat and as a result, the plants are not operating at full capacity.

FORESTERS OF NEW YORK MEET

First Township Forest Project Will Be planted on Holidays

(By International News Service.)
SYRACUSE, N. Y.—That New York state is setting the pace for all of America in a realization of the value of its forest areas was disclosed at the opening of forest week at the New York State College of Forestry when the following planting jobs scheduled for April alone were made public by F. F. Moon, acting dean of the college:

The first township forest project in American will be launched in Otsego county the week beginning April 19, when the first forests will be planted with general public holidays, of what will eventually be a public forest in each of the twenty-four townships of the county. At least 20,000 trees will be planted in this manner, with as many more at the same time by private parties.

Similar planting, though possibly not so extensive, will be done within the next two weeks by townships or villages in Chenango and Herkimer counties.

The city of Malone will plant 25,000 pine and 10,000 or 15,000 trees of other species the last of the month.

The College of Forestry itself, which is to supervise all of these plantings, will plant 20,000 trees on its own forest within the city limits of Syracuse.

The conference was devoted entirely to problems of such plantings so that the campaign originated in this state can be carried on to a much greater extent in the years to come.

The value of the forest for timber and for hunting, for wood alcohol, silk stockings, and as a farm crop will be discussed at the various sessions of the conference.

Dr. C. C. Adams, director of the Roosevelt Wild Life Forest Experiment Station, will tell how science can help make the forest more attractive to the sportsman. J. E. Rhodes, of New Orleans, secretary of the Southern Pine association, will tell how the lumberman looks at the forest problem. Chemical utilization of wood, by which it is converted into artificial silk and the like, will be another topic discussed.

The week will open with a discussion of public forests, grown to produce a salable crop of timber, Tuesday the farmer's forest as a crop and income producer will be discussed. Wednesday the lumberman will have their innings. Thursday will be woodcraft and wild life day, while the paper industry's problems will be taken up the last day of the forest week. Six to eight lectures a day will be the intensive schedule of the week.
